Chuck Cadiente – Head Coach Bantam Rec

Bachelor of Science, Electrical Engineering, Gonzaga University (1989). Chuck has 19 years of coaching experience at levels including Mite, Squirt, PeeWee, Bantam, Midget, college, and adult leagues, as well as referee experience through semi-pro. He grew up playing hockey in Sun Valley, Idaho, coached by his dad and players from the Sun Valley Suns semi-pro team. He's been playing hockey for 31 years, currently on the Greater Seattle Hockey League. Chuck's hands-on style of coaching often finds him actively participating in the drills he's teaching. He firmly believes hockey is a game of finesse and emphasizes skill development and player strategy at all ages.

He has additionally coached with Sno-King Amateur Hockey Association, Littleton Youth Hockey Association, Sun Valley Junior Hockey Association, Greater Seattle Hockey League, Rocky Mountain Hockey League and Gonzaga University.

Chuck is a USA Hockey certified "Level 3 Intermediate" Coach. This is his fifth year as Head Coach with Kent Valley Hockey Association.
