Kent, WA – KVHA News for 28 October, 2009 – Check out the scores below! It was a pretty good weekend for Kent Valley teams. Of 13 games played this past weekend, all of the teams either won or tied except for one, and that single loss was a close one, a 1 goal loss. In total, Kent Valley teams scored 88 goals while allowing only 21 goals. That's an average of 6.8 goals scored per game and an average of 1.6 goals-against per game. Even though we don't keep track of weekend game statistics from season to season, we don't recall Kent Valley teams playing 13 games in one weekend and experiencing only one loss. So, we're calling it an Association record! Congratulations boy and girls. Well done!

Fall Back 1-hour Saturday Night – Kent Valley Hockey Association grants you an extra hour of sleep Saturday night. It's time to set your clocks back, or "Fall Back," one hour. Failing to do so means you'll show up at the rink 60 minutes earlier than necessary.

Daylight Saving Time in the US begins on the second Sunday of March and ends on the first Sunday of November. In 2009, it therefore began on Sunday, March 8 at 2 a.m. and ends on Sunday, November 1 at 2 a.m. Time moves ahead one hour in March, whereas it moves back one hour in November (hence the saying "Spring forward, Fall back").

KVHA Mite Tornadoes Top KCHA Outlaws 14-2

Story contributed by JR Jenkins

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 24 October, 2009 – The KVHA Mite Tornadoes skated to another convincing victory on Saturday, defeating the KCHA Outlaws 14-2 on home ice. The Tornadoes used both a balanced scoring attack and smothering defense to dominate both shots on goal (30-9) as well as time of possession. The Tornadoes have now scored an incredible 38 goals in 3 games, while surrendering just 10. 12 players for Kent Valley have now scored a point!

Jake Sordahl and Danny Smith both scored hat tricks, with Smith recording his third hat trick in a row – a hat trick of hat tricks! Trevor Mertel and Zach Johnston both added two. Zach's goals were the first of his season and he had a brilliant "hustle" assist on a third, skating hard to get onside as Oliver Carlson came into the zone on the way to his third goal of the year.

Zach's first goal came off a beautiful two pass assist – Danny Smith to Trevor Mertel to Zach – and his second was a full speed rush down the left side of the ice culminating in a strong shot that beat the Outlaw goaltender high.

Also appearing for the first time on the scoring sheet this year was Noah Koester with an assist on Kemper Terry's goal. Terry continues to be a well rounded threat in the offensive zone adding 2 more assists to his season tally.

The Tornado defense played another incredible game – limiting the Outlaws to just 9 shots on goal and only 1 in the second period. The pairings – Chase Pagan / Gage Gessner, Oliver Carlson / Noah Koester, and Andrew Alonzo / Davis Fjeld – continue to play disciplined, tough defense. Notable is both their efficient, effective clearing of the defensive zone and their strong play inside the attacking zone.

Like sentinels on the point, the boys make a great contribution to the offense by both pinching the blue line - keeping the puck in the attacking zone and allowing the talented Tornado forwards to work the puck in front of the goal – and in their quick recovery and capture of pucks in the neutral zone. Tornado defense have now contributed twelve points to the scoring sheet in 3 games.

Brett Jenkins backstopped the Tornadoes in goal – picking up his third win – making 7 saves on 9 shots.

Jack Rector scored both goals for the KCHA Outlaws.

The Tornadoes play on the road this week, taking on the SKAHA Jr. T-Birds Green at Castle Ice Arena. Below is the scoring summary:

PeeWee Hurricanes (2) Seattle Jr. Blades (2)

Story contributed by Kirsten Mallery

Lynnwood Ice Arena, Lynnwood, WA 24 October, 2009 – Rolling in to Lynnwood 3 players down (2 on Defense!) with a hard-hitting reputation preceding them, the winless PeeWee Hurricanes used smart play-making teamwork, excellent fore-check and an awesome penalty kill to challenge the SJHA Blades to a hard-fought, exciting tug-of-war that finished in a 2-2 draw.

The Blades opened up the scoring midway through the 1st on a puck that just trickled in from the blocker-side corner shadows to get away from goalie Ben Cary. But shortly afterwards Hurricane Dennis Zaks answered with some crafty stick handling from the neutral zone, threading the defense (D) through the middle to swing left and wrist a shot catcher-side from the circle as a Blades defender bore down, potting his first goal of the season.

The Hurricane offense really kicked in then with solid rushes and a few breakaways spearheaded by Zaks and Camden Mallery - both of whom picked the Blades D like a lock and kept the goalie alert all game. The Blades defense had their hands full with those two!

Neutral zone play for the Hurricanes was impressive with first year PeeWees Sierra Sanabria, Joey DeRosa, Ryan Atkins and Caelin Byrnes taking turns interrupting the Blades passing game to get a stick on the puck and pass it down ice to a breaking forward.

The Blades lit the lamp again at the end of the 1st period to go up 2-1 when goalie Cary lost sight of the puck in net-front traffic where it pushed in the five-hole. But after that the Hurricane D owned their zone to shut down further Blades scoring.

First year Emily Atkins stayed calm, cool and collected to hold up the blue line as time and time again she was faced with an odd man rush or breakaway situation - at one point taking a smart hooking penalty to stop a breakaway. Hurricane parents applauded their approval loudly as she was escorted to the box. Second year Kyle Pirtilla worked the boards defensively like a pro, using his size to his advantage and winning 98% of the battles to then set up an offensive rush. His puck control and play making in the defensive zone were key components to the offensive success all day. Second years Jordan Wachter and Jacob Ray provided awesome open ice penalty-kill (PK) defense with good, hard, clean checks that made the Blades offense sit up and take notice!

The Hurricanes equalizing goal came in the 2nd from Camden Mallery when he was fed a neutral zone pass from Zaks to skate for the left side boards, push around the first Blades defender then break for the middle after the 2nd Blades D-man caught and edge and fell. Skating in front of the crease left to right untouched, the Blades goalie tried for a sprawling poke check that missed, then watched helplessly from the ice as, with a toe drag and backhand, Mallery netted his first goal of the season. The Hurricane momentum and enthusiasm became fully apparent as shortly thereafter, during a break in the action, techno music with a thumping beat filled the arena causing the ENTIRE Hurricane bench to throw their hands in the air and begin DANCING! As they jammed out the Hurricane parents joined them in a gleeful, fun, innocent, impromptu jam session worthy of any Kodak moment! One for the ages to be sure!

Hamstrung by penalties the Hurricanes seemed to spend most of the 2nd and 3rd periods on the PK, but remained calm, held their zone and turned the man disadvantage to an awesome shorthanded fore-check that never let up, often keeping the surprised Blades pinned down in their zone! Hurricane parents, on their feet, cheered loudly as the final two minutes slowly ticked away with the puck in the Hurricane zone and on the PK, where the tired Hurricane PK/defense dug in to a Blades offense that found a second wind, cycling the puck around the zone, putting several shots on goal that were blocked by excellent defensive positioning and Cary working the crease like a pro. Unable to quite clear the puck the Hurricanes held strong and never let up in the tug-of-war, keeping a Blades go-ahead game-winning goal at bay to notch the important tie.

A scoring summary is below:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Seattle Jr.	1	11:04	Noah Akins from Nick Kinkopf

PeeWee Tornadoes (1) Seattle Jr. Badgers (1)

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 24 October, 2009 – This game was about as even as a game can be. The Tornadoes' Nicklas Pokrzywinski scored the Tornadoes' only goal of the contest in the first period. The Seattle Jr. Badgers matched it in the third period. Kent Valley had 12 shots on goal and Seattle Jr. had 11 shots on goal. Austin Phelps stopped 10 of 11 shots for 91% and Seattle Jr's Cody Wong stopped 11 of 12 shots for 92%. The only real margin of any significance was in the penalty box where Seattle Jr. spent 8 minutes and Kent Valley spent 13 minutes. Defense! That's what this game was all about. Good goaltending and great defense. Congratulations to both teams.

PeeWee Tier-II Selects Flex Their Muscles

Story contributed by Sue Peacock

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 25 October, 2009 – The PeeWee Selects powered into Kent Valley Ice Centre and showed their dominance as they played 2 league games this past weekend against the SnoKing T-Birds. As reflected in the 2-game point totals below, the T-Birds were outmatched in a huge way. The Selects had 15 different players register goals or assists in the 2 games including a beautiful shot from the blue line for Lydia Grauer in game 1. Paul Gicewicz put a couple of beautiful slap shots on net from the back-40 as well. And, Noah Persson had some great defensive hits during the two games.

These lop-sided games, 23 to 1 Saturday and 14 to 0 Sunday, really highlight the vast differences in talent across the Tier 2 PeeWee league teams. While the Kent team is off to a strong start, the T-Birds will have a lot of work ahead of them if they want to improve their standings as the season goes on. Up next for Kent is a Halloween weekend in Tri-Cities. We'll see if our kids can spook the Americans as much as they terrorized the T-Birds.

Here's the point totals for the two games:

No.	Player	Goals	Assists	Points
2	Noah Persson	0	2	2
3	Jeremy Carlson	2	1	3
4	Eamann McMillon	3	5	8

Bantam Tornadoes Top SnoKing Green 3 to 1

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 24 October, 2009 – The visiting SnoKing Bantam Green got off to a first period lead and held on through the second period and 5:37 into the 3rd period. Less than a minute later JD Dunn put the Tornadoes in front with an unassisted goal at 6:22. A minute and a half later, Brandon Foote took a pass from Cooper Whitney and scored the Tornadoes' 3rd and final goal. Dunn's goal at 6:22 turned out to be the game winner.

Credit the Tornadoes with never giving up. SnoKing had the lead for a good portion of the game. However, when the Tornadoes decided to take control, they took full control, scoring 3 goals in 2 minutes and 15 seconds. ## Bantam Tier-II Selects Win and Tie with Seattle Jr. Bantam AA as Seattle Jr. Loses Their Cool

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 25 October, 2009 – The score sheet for Saturday's Bantam Tier-II game at Kent Valley Ice Centre may have set some kind of season record. Kent Valley had 5 penalties for 10 minutes. So, a two-page score sheet with 85 minutes in penalties is worth noting. Final score: Kent Valley 3, Seattle Jr. 0.

Jennings got a rest on Sunday as Tammy Haywood took over scoring duties. Haywood was able to keep the penalties to one page. However, she had her share of writing as Seattle Jr. took 16 penalties for 35 minutes and Kent Valley took 11 penalties for 24 minutes. Mikey Julin was the Select's one-man scoring machine as he scored two goals, one unassisted in the second and another, assisted by Ryan Zukowski in the third to tie it up. ## Midget Tornadoes Lose a Close One at Olympic View but Come Out With One Point

Story Contributed by Mary McDonald

Kent Valley Ice Centre, Kent, WA 17 October, 2009 –What seemed more like a playoff game than only the third regular season game for both the Midget Tornadoes and the Seattle Eagles, would have a disappointing 3-2 loss for the Tornadoes. The first period, would have been the perfect opportunity for the Tornadoes to take advantage of the 4 power plays but they were unable to capitalize on any of them and would end up in a scoreless first period. The second period would see both teams with penalties mostly off setting but the Tornadoes were able to score 2 goals. The third again would see penalties for both sides; at one point the tornadoes had their whole blue line in the box...it would also see the Eagles score three unanswered goals. Unfortunately even with the goalie pulled for the last: 50 seconds, the Tornadoes would put on the pressure and get some quality shots, but were unable to bury the puck behind the Eagles goalie. Even though they lost the game the Tornadoes received their sportsmanship point but the Eagles did not. The Tornadoes next game is a rematch against the Eagles at home on Saturday the 31st.

Here's the scoring summary:

Team	Period	Time	Scoring
Kent Valley	2	9:26	Blake Walsh from Brady Anderson
Kent Valley	2	3:23	Justin Hill-Sellers from Ben Fleming and Kyle Miller Smith
Seattle Jr.	3	13:44	Mat Sauerback from Brian Finne & Quin Taylor
Seattle Jr.	3	13:37	Brian Finne from Mat Sauerback
Seattle Jr.	3	11:06	Sam Williams from Brian Finne

Kent Valley's Joshua Severeid stopped 19 of 22 shots on goal for 86%.
 Seattle Jr's Jake Ramsey stopped 25 of 27 shots on goal for 93%.
 Kent Valley had 7 minor penalties for 14 minutes while Seattle Jr. had 10 minor penalties, 1 major and 1 game misconduct penalty for 35 minutes.

Midget Tier-II Selects Take Down Whatcom Midgets

SportsPlex Arena, Bellingham, WA 24 October, 2009 – The KVHA Midget Selects travelled up I-5 to Bellingham Saturday to take on the Whatcom Midgets. After two very defensive periods and two-thirds of the way into the third period, down 2 to 0, the Selects turned on the jets

Four minutes later at 2:25 Bloxton did it again with an assist from the "Big Guy," Tyler Dunn. Dunn added the game winner at 1:32 remaining with help from Jason Bartlett and Steven Meginnes. Final score: Kent Valley 3, Whatcom 2. Well done boys! You're getting better on those penalties too, only 23 minutes this game. Not bad...

Here's the scoring summary:

Seattle Thunderbirds Hockey Club*

The T-Birds were defeated by the Brandon Wheat Kings, 4-1, on Friday at ShoWare Center. Sena Acolatse scored the T-Birds only goal on a power-play slap shot from the left point. The T-Birds then hit the road for a six-game road trip to the Central Division of the WHL. The Calgary Hitmen defeated the T-Birds 2-1 on Sunday afternoon in a very close game. The T-Birds were in the game the whole way against one of the best teams in the league. The Hitmen scored a late power-play goal to secure the win. The T-Birds stay on the road for five more games and will face the Red Deer Rebels, Edmonton Oil Kings, Lethbridge Hurricanes, Medicine Hat Tigers and Kootenay Ice before returning home to ShoWare Center. They take on the Spokane Chiefs on Friday, November 6, at 7:35pm at ShoWare Center.

Jason Thomsen's Shout from the ShoW

Hey Teams! Remember that all youth hockey teams can come out and enjoy a Thunderbirds game for a special group rate of just $10 per person in our family section. This special price is good for all youth teams, players, coaches, their families and friends. Also, we can have one team each game hi-5 the T-Birds as they head to the ice for pre-game warm ups. Contact Jason Thomsen (253-856-6834 or at jasont@seattlethunderbirds.com) in the T-Birds front office today to select your game and make sure your team gets to get up close to the T-Birds before an upcoming game.
