

Kent Valley Rainiers Name Billy Coupland Head Coach

Kent Valley Ice Centre - Kent, WA. 3 May, 2010 – The Kent Valley Rainiers are pleased to announce Billy Coupland as their head coach for the 2010-11 season and beyond. Billy was selected after an exhaustive candidate search to lead the Pacific Northwest's premier Tier 1 program. Following their Pacific District Pee Wee Tier 1 Championship and quarterfinal berth at the 2010 USA Hockey Tier 1 National Championships, the Rainiers are continuing the strong coaching tradition vital to the program's success. The Bantam division has unique challenges including physical development and scouting exposure. Billy Coupland brings a proven track record at the Bantam level of team championships, player development and advancement.

Billy has an impeccable reputation with his former teams and players. He was most recently a scout for the Tampa Bay Lightning and runs high performance camps for elite players all over North America. He is well known throughout the Junior and collegiate hockey communities and will provide opportunities for players to reach their full potential. The Rainiers are thrilled to have a head coach with Billy's attention to detail and passion for teaching the game of hockey.

Kent Valley's Executive Director Les Grauer stated: "We couldn't be happier to have Billy Coupland join our coaching staff. He brings an impressive list of credentials as well as a teaching style unique to the Pacific NW coaching community. Billy will continue the championship legacy of our Rainiers program and teach our players the skills they need to be successful as they fulfill their hockey dreams."

Billy's selection follows up the announcement of Lloyd Degelman as the head coach of Kent Valley's Bantam Elite team of 1996 birth year players. Together, Billy and Lloyd provide an incredible depth of coaching experience for the Bantam division. Billy's coaching resume as well as some of the players he has been instrumental developing are shown at the end of this release.

Billy's appointment is the first in a series of announcements regarding the Kent Valley Rainiers and their 2010-11 program plan. Stay tuned for further details on upcoming Billy Coupland High Performance Camps, as well as tryout information for the 2010-11 Kent Valley Rainiers.
